

Million-Dollar Settlements continued

Amount (millions) ¹	Plaintiff's Attorneys ²	Case Type and Summary ³	Case Cite	Judge ⁴	Breakdown ⁵	Defense	Date
75) $1.325	G. Grant Dixon III of Corboy & Demetrio	Work injury; pipe contractor sustained a shattered first cervical vertebra when a large wooden support toppled over and struck him in the head.	Robert Perrone v. Kenny Construction Co., et al., 97L 13257	Law Division Presiding Judge Judith Cohen	$1.25 million from Kenny Construction Co.; 75,000 from L.J. Keefe Co., Inc.	Mark E. Christensen and Christopher M. Kennedy of Christensen & Ehret	Mar. 31, 1999
32) $3	Shawn S. Kasserman and G. Grant Dixon III of Corboy & Demetrio	Work injury; Soggy ground at future site of O'Hare Post Office gave way, causing backhoe to sink, trapping plaintiff in 20-foot-deep, water filled trench. Plaintiff suffered hypoxia, punctured lungs, fractured ribs and post-traumatic stress disorder.	Marlin Scott Kline v. Power Contracting and Engineering Corp., et al., 97L 13253	Law Division Presiding Judge Judith Cohen	$1 million policy paid by St. Paul; $2 million from excess carrier AIG; $535,000 comp lien waived by plumbing subcontractor, Mecon Industries	Rudolf G. Schade Jr. and Thomas P. Boylan of Casiday, Schade (Power); David F. Buysse of Garofalo, Schreiber & Hart (Mecon)	Feb. 24, 1999