

Gore earns auctioneer designation

La Grange resident Bridget Gore has graduated from Continental Auctioneers school. Gore received instruction in all phases of the auctioneer profession and was awarded a diploma, as well as the certified auctioneer designation. She acquired the knowledge and skills to recommend the auction method of marketing when a client wants to obtain the highest and best price possible.

Gore

After completing the personal property appraisal course, Gore also was awarded a diploma and the certified personal property appraiser designation. She is qualified to conduct personal property appraisals of all types.

Dixon addresses students

C. Grant Dixon, of the Dixon Law Office, addressed students at John Marshall Law School regarding tips and techniques.

The seminar, conducted by John Marshall's Career Services Department, was titled "Interviewing Insights."

Dixon has departed Corboy &

Demetrio to start the Dixon Law Office at 1415 W. 55th St., La Grange.

Grattan attends conference

Physical therapist Mary Pope Grattan, affiliated with The Therapy Center in La Grange, attended a sports medicine conference relating to college and high school athletes.

ON THE MOVE

Team physicians, athletic trainers and physical therapists from across the country presented such topics as rehabilitation of the complicated knee; agility and coordination drills; and formula for effective modalities in athletic injury management.

Gros named top doctor

Dr. William Gros, a primary care physician practicing in Westchester, has been named to "Town & Country" magazines list of top primary care physicians.

Gros not only received peer references, but also underwent a rigorous review of doctor credentials, board certifications and disciplinary history. Gros also had to excel in bedside manner, openness to alternative treatments and other criteria.

The doctor is associated with La Grange Memorial Hospital.

Consultant post for Hill

Deanna Hill of Brookfield joined Tastefully Simple Inc. as a consultant.

As a consultant for the national direct sales company, Hill conducts in-home presentations of upscale, convenience-driven gourmet foods.

During the taste-testing parties, guests receive easy meal ideas, recipes and entertainment suggestions.

McCabe joins title firm

La Grange resident Kathleen McCabe, an attorney in private practice in Brookfield, is now associated with Attorney's Title Guaranty Fund Inc.

The firm is a lawyer-based service organization whose core business is to provide residential real estate and trust services.